April 2022 Edition

2022 BFNL SEASON LAUNCHED THIS MONTH

Friday 1st April the 2022 Bendigo FNL Season formally got underway with the annual launch hosted by League sponsors Bendigo Mazda. Representing our club at the official function were President Rick Townsend, Senior Football Coach Nathan Horbury and A Grade Netball Captain Steph Goode.

On the back of a successful 2021 when all of our Netball sides and both Seniors & Reserves football teams made finals, the Club is looking to continue our climb to success. There is an air of optimism around the Bloods this year and we look forward to our opening match in Round 1 at the QEO against Golden Square.

2022 is going to be a big year for South Bendigo FNC. If work continues to schedule out at Kennington Oval we would hope to be a position to play our Round 18 match against Kangaroo Flat, the last game of the season, out at Harry Trott, incorporating the official opening of our new facility. If this is possible the proposed change of venue will be confirmed later in the year.

Whatever the outcome, the 2002 season will be an historic one in the history of our club, it will be the last year the Bloods have the QEO as our home and the start of a new chapter in our long and proud history.

2022 GOLF DAY

The Club's Annual Golf Day was held at the Axedale Golf Club on Sunday the 3rd of April. The course was in great condition and a beautiful autumn day with little or no breeze made for perfect conditions and most enjoyable day. As usual there were some good scores carded in the 4-person Ambrose event plus a few other teams who just enjoyed the walk in picturesque surroundings and a couple of beers along the way.

Participants enjoyed a great event which was well conducted thanks to the organisation of Trevor Wright and Rick Townsend who were well supported on the day by Ron Hiatt on the BBQ and Gary Bath who drove a golf cart around the course to keep the players well refreshed and hydrated.

A big thank you to all the sponsors who supported the day:

NETBALL

BFNL 2022 SEASON PREVIEW – Article by Kieran Iles Bendigo Advertiser 31st March 2022

South Bendigo wing attack Emily Cossar.

Summary: Competing in one of Victoria's toughest and obviously best grassroots netball competitions, South Bendigo has made great strides in each of coach Jannelle Hobbs' seasons at the helm since 2018. But cracking the top-three in a league inhabited by the likes of powerhouses Sandhurst, Gisborne and Kangaroo Flat has been a tough ask. While Hobbs acknowledges top-three is the definite aim once more, it's going to take something special, especially with a new contender on the block in Castlemaine. But she also knows her Bloods team has never been stronger.

Another busy pre-season was highlighted by the recruitment of VNL player Chloe Gray, who joins the Bloods after making the Riddell District league team of the year in 2021 while playing for Wallan. In a further boost, particularly for a largely young squad, South Bendigo has added a wealth of experience in former Kangaroo Flat premiership players Alicia McGlashan and Jamie Clohesy.

McGlashan, one of the league's premier defenders from the moment she first stepped onto the A-grade court back in the early 2000s, has joined the Bloods after winning six premierships with the Roo's and playing in 10 grand finals in total. While her pre-season has been interrupted due to a broken finger sustained in tryouts last year, Hobbs is anticipating she will be ready to join Stephanie Goode in defence for the Bloods' season opener against Golden Square.

Her 2016 Roo's premiership team-mate Clohesy is making a return to the court, after missing the cancelled 2020 season and last year's as well.

After a lengthy and intense pre-season, Hobbs is expecting her team to be raring to go. Their preparation has been topped with practice matches against Bridgewater and Ballarat league club Redan, with another to follow against Castlemaine on March 31.

Hobbs is predicting big things from new recruit Gray after a standout pre-season. The star newcomer, who is playing VNL this season with Southern Saints, has brought plenty of versatility and skill to an already strong line-up. 'Her and Keiarah Brooks have been combining brilliantly in the midcourt,' said Hobbs of her new recruit, who can also play goal attack. "I feel Chloe will have an amazing season."

The other player to catch the eye has been new goal shooter Olivia Mason, who has made the move from Shepparton Swans in the Goulburn Valley league. "She has really been training well," said Hobbs.

"There's lots of depth there this year, which we've worked on every year since I came to South and it's something we've managed to add to. "There's real competition for spots this year." The A-squad will comprise further fresh faces in defender Amy Morrissey and last year's 17-and-under star Ella Flavell, who got her first taste of A-grade last season.

The recruits join A-grade holdovers Brooks, Goode, star young goal shooter Chloe Langley and midcourter Emily Cossar.

Departures from last season include midcourter Danielle O'Toole and young shooter Abbey Grindal. Hobbs, who has coached in the BFNL since 2012, insists this year will be the strongest across the board season in her time in the league.

"There are a number of clubs looking promising. Obviously, there's Kangaroo Flat, Sandhurst and Gisborne, who are strong no matter what, and then there's us and Castlemaine," she said. "It's really hard to predict. I think it will come down to match-ups on the day.

"We still don't know much about Castlemaine, despite plenty of big-name recruits. There's a real element of surprise to them. "But the proven sides are Sandhurst, Kangaroo Flat and Gisborne and they will no doubt be tough to beat again."

JUNIOR NETBALL

Welcome to season 2022! This year we have 146 players across 16 teams playing in the Bendigo Strathdale Netball Association (BSNA) competition.

The junior netball teams have already started their season returning to the courts on 25 and 26 March with some great results. 10 of the 12 competitive teams had a win with 1 draw! In round 2 all teams had wins so it looks like our selectors got the teams into the correct competition sections.

Team Names

Our teams are again named after the Clubs significant women contributors and as always it was great to see Marianne Barrett courtside for the first game of the season! Our team names for 2022 are Section 2 Forrester, Bruhn and Tomlins. Section 3 Dillon, Barrett, Wastell, Arnold and Baker. Section 4 Brown and Leech. Grade 6 Hiatt and Symons. Grade 5 Bakes and Chapman. Grade 4 Nash and Grade 3 Walker.

BSNA News

As most would know we are again playing across three different locations in 2022. Bendigo stadium Friday nights and Strathdale Park and our very own Harry Trott courts on Saturday's.

At the recent AGM Ben Dillon (who coaches one of our S3 teams) and has a connection with both Falcons and Holy Rosary was elected President. Anna Feiss, South Bendigo committee member, treasurer and coach and I, ops manager and coach were elected as Treasurer and Secretary respectively. Nikki Boulter from Falcons was returned as Vice-President. The new Executive team are keen to continue building on the great work Heather Abdy and the outgoing executive have done over many years.

2022 Coaches

We are excited to welcome back the following coaches from 2021, Stacey Russell, Alison Leech, Jemma Sharman, Tracey Turner, Anna Feiss, Kate Buckner, Tanya O'Gorman, Emily Buckner, Rachel Voegel, Haley Aldred, and Bec Worley. A big welcome to new coaches Ben and Anne Dillon, Nicolle Korp, Kate Snowdon, Daniel Holloway, Liberty Floreani, Sarah Maple, Jordyn Aldred, Stephanie Aghan, Daniel Holloway, Yasmin Colley and Wendy Smith.

Uniform Library

For the first time the junior Club has introduced a uniform library. With the generous support of the Bendigo South Rotary Club who kindly donated $500 to put towards the establishment of the library parents will now have the option to join the library and swap uniforms as their child moves through our primary teams rather than buy uniforms each time their child changes size. At this time the uniform library is only available to the Grade 3 team however we hope to expand it to include all primary teams in coming seasons and if all goes well eventually to the entire junior division.

New Dress Design

South Bendigo also has a new dress design for the 2022 season. The junior Committee decided that for 2022, only our grade 3 team will wear the new uniform with all other grades playing in the old style. To ensure parents didn't have to buy dresses in 2022 that would need to be replaced again in 2023 we ran a very successful "swap meet" where past players donated their dresses, current players swapped their dresses, and the Seniors kindly gave us their dresses. Thank you to all those who helped with this process.

Volunteers

As always, the Junior netball club is seeking volunteers to join the Committee. As the old Chinese proverb says “many hands make light work”. We try to ensure the number of hours required to undertake the various jobs of the Committee are kept to a minimum. So, if you are looking for a way to give back to your Club and the local community, please get in contact with Nicole at jnrboperations@southbendigofnc.com.au or talk to one of the Committee. We would love to hear from you!

Team Spotlight

This month we would like to introduce our youngest netballers – Grade 3 Walker! Our super keen, super cute, future stars of the game and our Club started their season undertaking skills sessions. In a couple of weeks' time they will be playing games each week. A huge, big shout out to super coaches Wendy Smith and Yasmin Colley for taking on the role of teaching the team the fundamentals of netball. As previously mentioned, our Walker team are the very first to wear the new South Bendigo netball uniform. Below are some great photos of the girls in action wearing their new uniforms. Unfortunately, Orly was unavailable the week these photos were taken!

BFNL 2022 SEASON PREVIEW – Article by Adam Bourke Bendigo Advertiser 31st March 2022

South Bendigo's big jump into the BFNL top five in 2021 has raised expectations for 2022. The Bloods' big improvement last year caught a few rivals off guard - they won't get the same luxury this year.

Being hunted is something that coach Nathan Horbury savours. The classy midfielder expects his side to take another step forward in 2022. "I'm confident we can play finals footy," Horbury said. "We know our best footy is good enough, it's just a matter of closing the gap between our best and worst. I think we took a fair step towards that last year. "I think we have the pieces in place to have a good year."

The return to the club of midfielders Liam Byrne, a former Bendigo Gold VFL player, and Isaiih Miller, a BFNL inter-league representative, more than offset the departure of Brody Haddow. Ex-Kyabram player Sam Langley has made a big impression in his first pre-season with the Bloods. Will Allen's return helps the Bloods in an area they are deficient in - height.

"We know (a lack of height) lets us down," Horbury said. "Daniel Nalder is flying on the track and he'll play key position forward with Will Allen. "Riley Walsh will play in the ruck where he'll be undersized against most ruckmen, with Andy Van Heumen and Daniel Johnstone down back. "The keys are there, but we know we're probably missing one real big fella that a lot of sides do have.

"We've worked our game structures around having a smaller side and if we can play to those structures then we can catch some sides out. "It's a matter of playing to those structures for four quarters rather than a half."

The redevelopment of Harry Trott Oval is an advantage for the fleet-footed Bloods - all their home games this year will be played on the spacious QEO. "With our run and carry and speed we can open teams up on the QEO," Horbury said. "We think that will suit us."

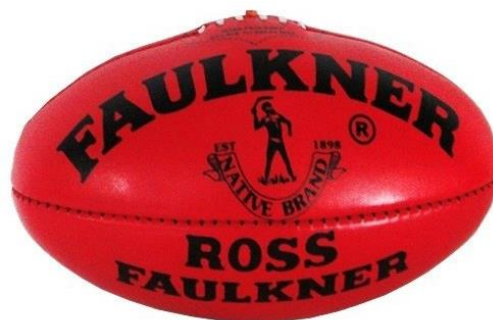

Will Keck will return to the South Bendigo line-up after suffering a serious knee injury last year.

Horbury said the appointment of Bloods' great Shaun Leech as under-18 coach had been a boost for the entire club. "We were scratching for numbers last year, so Leechy has done a great job to get a team together. "They've trained with the senior group for most of the pre-season.

"Most of the under-18s this year are bottom age players, so I'm not sure how they'll go this year, but there's some good talent in the group and we have a strong under-16 team coming through as well. "It's a great sign for the club going forward."

The Bloods will know early in the season where they sit in the pecking order. South has arguably the toughest opening four rounds in the competition - Golden Square, Eaglehawk, Sandhurst and Kyneton. "We haven't beaten Golden Square in my time at the club and they've been a quality line-up for a long time," Horbury said.

"We think we can beat any team on the QEO, so we're looking forward to a big game round one."

LOOKING TO MAKE CONTACT WITH PAST PLAYERS

For the past 4 years the club has been recognising and celebrating our successful teams from the past by hosting a reunion of their premierships teams.

We are looking to make these reunions a 5 year rotational event and in 2022 it is the turn of those sides who were successful in a year ending in either a 2 or a 7. Specifically, this year will be for the 2007 Reserves side and the Under 18 Premiership sides of 1957, 1982 and 1992. The reunion day will be our Round 7 home game at the QEO on the 28th of May.

Unfortunately, the Club does not have a photograph of the 2007 Reserves side on record and so we are unable to directly contact the players who were in that team. If you have a team photo, and we know one was taken, we would really appreciate you emailing us a copy. This will enable us to compile a team list and send out invitations to team members.

We would love to get as many as we possibly can back to the Bloods on that day so if you could please pass on this information to any of your old teammates that you are still in contact with or know the whereabouts of it would be greatly appreciated.

For the 3 Under 18 sides involved we have only notified those with an email address at this stage however closer to the event we will make every effort to contact all past players by other means if required.
